LEFT OUT

In 1993, left-hander Greg Hibbard went 15-11 with a 3.96 ERA in 31 starts during his only season with the Cubs.

In 11 seasons since then spanning 1,716 games, the Cubs have only had 148 contests started by a left-handed pitcher – with those southpaws picking up just 32 combined victories. The list:

1994-1995-1996: none

1997: Terry Mulholland (25 starts, 6 wins)

1998: Mulholland (6 starts, 3 wins)

1999: Micah Bowie (11 starts, 2 wins), Andrew Lorraine (11 starts, 2 wins), Dan Serafini (4 starts, 1 win), Brad Woodall (3 starts), Brian McNichol (2 starts)

2000: Scott Downs (18 starts, 4 wins), Lorraine (5 starts, 1 win), Daniel Garibay (8 starts), Joey Nation (2 starts), Phil Norton (2 starts)

2001: none

2002: Steve Smyth (7 starts, 1 win)

2003: Shawn Estes (28 starts, 8 wins)

2004: Glendon Rusch (16 starts, 4 wins)

Meanwhile, since Jamie Moyer recorded 9 wins for the Cubs in 1988, only one left-handed starting pitcher produced in the club's farm system (Scott Downs in 2000) has recorded a victory for the team. Moyer also is the last Cubs southpaw to earn a win in his big league debut, defeating Steve Carlton and the Philadelphia Phillies 7-5 on June 16, 1986.

SAVE RULE

Rule 10.20 tells the official scorer to credit a pitcher with a save when:

(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club, and; (2) he is not the winning pitcher, and; (3) he qualifies under the following conditions: (a) he enters the game with a lead of no more than 3 runs and pitches for at least 1.0 inning, or; (b) he enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or; (c) he pitches effectively for at least 3.0 innings.

When a relief pitcher enters a game in a save situation and departs or the game ends with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead, he is charged with a "blown save." If the save opportunity still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

If the pitcher has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, though the save opportunity may no longer exist because of added runs scored by his own team, he is not charged with a save opportunity.

ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Since 1971, Major League Baseball has annually presented an award that recognizes a player who best exemplifies the game of baseball through sportsmanship, community involvement and positive contributions to his team.

In 1973, following the tragic death of Roberto Clemente, the award was named to honor the man whose spirit and goodwill will always be remembered. The 12-time All-Star and Hall of Famer was killed in a plane crash in 1972 delivering food and medical supplies to earthquake victims of Nicaragua. The award, sponsored by John Hancock Financial Services, recognizes those individuals who truly understand the value of helping others.

A panel of baseball dignitaries, including Vera Clemente and Commissioner Allan H. (Bud) Selig, annually selects the winner from a list of 30 candidates, one from each Major League Baseball Club.

John Hancock Financial Services, a company that has long recognized its obligation to the community, is a proud sponsor of Major League Baseball and the Roberto Clemente Award.

On June 29, 1937, Cubs first baseman Jimmy Collins set a National League record by not having any fielding chances in the Cubs' 11-9 victory over the Cardinals in St. Louis. Leftfielder Augie Galan and catcher Gabby Hartnett each had 8 of the Cubs' 27 putouts, followed by second baseman Billy Herman (4), shortstop Billy Jurges (3), centerfielder Joe Marty (2), starting rightfielder Frank Demaree (1) and substitute rightfielder Phil Cavarretta (1). Herman had both Cubs assists in the game on force plays at second base.

The only other N.L. first baseman to accomplish that feat was the Cubs' Fred McGriff – on August 15, 2002, vs. Houston. Catchers Todd Hundley (14) and Joe Girardi (3) recorded 17 of the club's 27 putouts via the strikeout route. Shortstop Alex Gonzalez had the Cubs' only assist on a 9th-inning ground out.

RUNS SCORED — AND RUNS ALLOWED

The Cubs mark for scoring in consecutive games is 127, set from June 15, 1958-May 13, 1959. The team record for scoring in consecutive contests in one season is 109, set in 1943 (May 23-September 18).

The longest streak for Cubs pitchers without hurling a shutout is 106 games, set in 1901 (May 18-September 20).

On June 29, 1897, the Cubs scored at least 1 run in every inning in a 36-7 victory at Louisville. That was the only time in club history that the team scored at least 1 run in every frame. The last time the Cubs surrendered at least 1 run in every inning took place May 5, 1999, vs. Colorado at Wrigley Field.

Since 1900, the Cubs have thrown three consecutive shutouts seven times, with the last occurrence taking place July 21-July 24, 1992 — when the Cubs won 1-0 and 3-0 at Cincinnati and 1-0 at Houston.

The last time the Cubs threw shutouts in both games of a doubleheader occurred July 11, 1965, vs. St. Louis at Wrigley Field (identical 6-0 scores).

The Cubs were held scoreless in a National League-record 48 consecutive innings June 15-June 21, 1968. The club was blanked in four straight games June 16-June 20.

The last time the Cubs gave up fewer than 3 runs during a three-game series took place May 26-May 28, 1978, at St. Louis — when the Cubs swept the set by scores of 6-0, 3-2 and 2-0.

The last time the Cubs gave up fewer than 3 runs during a Wrigley Field three-game set occurred May 2-May 4, 1972, vs. Atlanta (12-1, 12-1, 8-0).

From July 5-July 7, 2001, the Cubs scored 38 runs over a 3-game span — winning by scores of 13-4 at New York and 15-9 and 10-6 at Detroit. Over the 3-game span, the Cubs recorded 50 hits — including 21 for extra bases (12 doubles, 4 triples, 5 homers).

In 1930, the Cubs established a team record by reaching the 10-runs plateau in 5 straight games June 1-June 6. During that stretch — the only time in club history that the team had a double-digit runs streak surpassing 3 games — the Cubs defeated Pittsburgh 16-4 on June 1 at Wrigley Field before going on a road trip. They swept the Boston Braves over a 3-game span June 3-June 5 by scores of 15-2, 18-10 and 10-7, then went to Brooklyn and beat the Dodgers 13-0 on June 6.

During a 20-1 victory over Los Angeles May 5, 2001, the Cubs scored 8 times during both the 7th and 8th innings. This was only the fifth time in major league history that a team plated at least 8 runs in consecutive frames. The list:

April 30, 1887: St. Louis (NL) vs. Cleveland	7 in 5th, 8 in 6th
June 16, 1887: Philadelphia (NL) vs. Washington	3 in 7th, 8 in 8th
May 2, 1901: Boston (AL) vs. Philadelphia	9 in 2nd, 10 in 3rd
July 29, 1928: Cleveland vs. New York	3 in 1st, 9 in 2nd
May 5, 2001: CUBS vs. Los Angeles	8 in 7th, 8 in 8th

GETTING OFF TO A GOOD START

The last Cubs starter to win his first 5 decisions to start a campaign was Jaime Navarro — in 1995.

The last Cubs starter to open the year with a 6-plus game winning streak was Kenny Holtzman, who went 9-0 during the 1967 season. That was the best season start for a Cub since Jim McCormick won his first 16 decisions in 1886.

AWARD-WINNING PERFORMANCE: Carlos Zambrano was selected as the National League's Pitcher of the Month for September ... in 5 starts during the month, he went 4-0 with a 1.01 ERA (4 ER/35.2 IP) and held opponents to a .211 average ... it was his first such award.

- Ⓢ the Cubs were 5-0 in his starts in September.
- Ⓢ his four wins in September gave the 23-year-old a career-high 16 wins for the 2004 campaign ... prior to the season, there had only been 10 Cubs pitchers since World War II to win 15 or more games at age 23 or younger.

HOMER HAPPY: The Cubs combined to hit a National League-leading 235 home runs in the campaign, surpassing the franchise mark of 212 set in 1998.

- Ⓢ the Cubs scored 360 of their runs on roundtrippers, besting the mark of 345, set in 1998.

- Ⓢ the Cubs also set a franchise mark for most players with 25 or more homers in a single season when Aramis Ramirez hit his 25th homer of the season.
- Ⓢ the team went deep three or more times in the same game 38 times this season ... previously, the most times in a season that they had accomplished the feat was 29 (in 1987).
- Ⓢ since moving to Wrigley Field in 1916, the Cubs have had six seasons where they had 20 or more three home run games: 2004, 1987 (29), 1998 (25), 1999 (20), 1950 (20) ... they also did so in 1884 (26).
- Ⓢ on August 20 at Houston, the Cubs hit at least six homers in a game for the 20th time in franchise history ... it was only the fifth time since divisional play began in 1969 that the Cubs hit at least six home runs in a road game (and tied a club record).

- Ⓢ on April 18, he set the franchise mark for career homers, hitting his 513th homer in a Cub uniform.

FAN-TASTIC: The Cubs played before a combined home/road attendance of 6,064,021, marking the first time in franchise history that the club surpassed the 6-million mark and the fifth time that the team has exceeded a combined attendance of 5.5 million (also 1999, 2000, 2001 and 2003).

- Ⓢ the previous combined home/road high was 5,635,118, reached in 2003.

- Ⓢ at 23 years and 42 days, Zambrano was the youngest Cub to pitch and the youngest Cub to play in an All-Star Game ... previously, the youngest to pitch in an All-Star game was Fergie Jenkins (23 years, 210 days old) when he pitched in the 1967 All-Star Game.

BRINGING THEM HOME: Aramis Ramirez and Moises Alou joined elite ranks, becoming the 13th and 14th Cubs (respectively) to record 100-RBI seasons dating back to 1954.

WHO'S ON THIRD: Aramis Ramirez set a club record for most homers by a third baseman — and became the third Cub third baseman to record 100+ RBI in a season ... only Ron Santo (4 times) and Andy Pafko had done so previously.

20/20: Corey Patterson hit 24 homers and recorded 32 stolen bases in the campaign.

- Ⓢ he is just the fifth individual in Cubs history to have both 20 homers and 20 steals in the same campaign ... the other four: Sammy Sosa (four times, including two 30/30 seasons), Ryne Sandberg (three times), Leon Durham and Wildfire Schulte).

DOUBLE OR NOTHING: The Cubs notched 308 doubles in the campaign, their highest total since 1931, when they hit a club record 340 two-base hits.

CLOSE CALLS: Carlos Zambrano pitched his first career 2-hitter May 7 vs. Colorado in the Cubs' 11-0 victory.

- Ⓢ Aaron Miles and Matt Holliday notched the Rockies' only hits ... Luis Gonzalez was the only other baserunner (hit by pitch) for the Rockies.

SAVING GRACE: Reliever LaTroy Hawkins appeared in a career and club-high 77 games in the 2004 campaign ... he finished 50 of those contests.

- Ⓢ he posted 25 saves, three shy of his career-best (2001), converting 73.5 percent of his save opportunities.
- Ⓢ on September 11 vs. Florida, he became one of three major league pitchers in 2004 to strike out the side on 9 pitches, retiring Jeff Conine, Juan Encarnacion and Alex Gonzalez ... he is only the third Cub in club annals to accomplish this feat (joining Milt Pappas and Bruce Sutter).

CONNECT THE DOTS

The Cubs' entire National League history can be spanned by the careers of as few as ten players.

Hall of Famer Cap Anson played for the club from 1876-1897. Frank Chance joined the team in 1898 and was with the Cubs until 1912. He was in turn followed by Hippo Vaughn (1913-1921), Gabby Hartnett (1922-1940), Phil Cavarretta (1935-1953) and Ernie Banks (1953-1971). Rick Reuschel's first tour of duty with the Cubs took place from 1972-1981, then Ryne Sandberg played for the team from 1982 until his first retirement in 1994, while Sammy Sosa (1992) made his Cubs debut prior to Sandberg's first retirement.

Kerry Wood joined the club in 1998.

BEAR CUBS

The highest number of players to make their major league debuts in one season for the Cubs was 20 – in 1902. The high number of youngsters that season was one of the primary reasons why the club was nicknamed the "Cubs." With the raid of National League players by American League teams, many N.L. clubs stocked their spring training rosters with young, unproven players. The Chicago Daily News, noting all the youngsters in the Chicago camp, used the nickname "Cubs" for the first time in its March 27, 1902, edition.

OPEN ME FIRST

On Opening Day 2003 (March 31) at New York, the Cubs defeated the Mets 15-2 - tying a team Opening Day runs-scored mark (previously reached in 1899). The Cubs opened the game by plating 4 runs in the 1st Inning - marking just the second time in club annals (also 1892) that the team scored 4 times in the 1st inning of a season.

Leading the offensive charge was Corey Patterson, who went 4-for-6 with 2 homers and a team Opening Day-record 7 RBI.

PINCH HITTER DEFINITION

A player shall be considered a pinch hitter only if he enters the game as a substitute batter and then only on his first time at bat, which must be before he becomes a fielder. If the team bats around and a pinch hitter comes up a second time in the inning in which he first appeared, he will not be considered a pinch hitter during that second time up.

A GRAND TIME WAS HAD BY ALL

With 5 grand slams in 2004, the Cubs increased their all-time number of bases-loaded roundtrippers to 267.

The Cubs record for grand slams in a season is 9, recorded in 1929 by Hack Wilson (2), Rogers Hornsby (2), Charlie Grimm (2), Rogers Stephenson, Norman McMillan and Kiki Cuyler. McMillan's roundtripper was of the inside-the-park variety.

The club's first grand slam was hit by pitcher Larry Corcoran on June 20, 1882, off Worcester's Lee Richmond at Chicago's Lakefront Park.

The only Cubs to hit more than 2 grand slams in one season are Ernie Banks (5 in 1955), Wildfire Schulte (4 in 1911) and Sammy Sosa (3 in 1998). Sosa hit grand slams in back-to-back games July 27-July 28 of that season, becoming the first Cub to accomplish that feat.

On June 3, 1987, the Cubs and Houston Astros combined to hit 3 grand slams — tying a major league single-game record. Two Cubs hit bases-loaded roundtrippers — Brian Dayett (off Bob Knepper) and Keith Moreland (off Julio Solano). Houston's Billy Hatcher hit a grand slam in the contest off Rick Sutcliffe.

On August 16, 1890, Chicago batters Tom Burns and Malachi Kittridge both connected for 5th-inning grand slams off Pittsburgh's Bill Phillips — for the franchise's only multiple grand slam inning.

The Cubs' steal of home records:

Career: 22 – Frank Schulte
Single-Season: 6 – Johnny Evers (1907)
Game: 2 – Joe Tinker (6/28/1910 vs. Cincinnati)

The only Cub to steal second, third and home in the same inning was Wilbur Good – on April 18, 1915, vs. Brooklyn (6th inning).

On October 6, 2001, at Wrigley Field, Sammy Sosa circled the bases in the 3rd inning for an inside-the-park homer off Pittsburgh's Tony McKnight.

The Cubs' inside-the-park homer records:

Career (Since 1900): 18 – Frank Schulte
Single-Season: 6 – Tommy Leach (1913), Cy Williams (1915)
Game: 2 – Hugh Duffy (8/9/1889 vs. Boston Braves), Topsy Hartzel (8/5/1901 @ Cincinnati)

The only time in Cubs history that the club had back-to-back inside-the-park homers took place June 23, 1946, when Eddie Waitkus and Marv Rickert accomplished the feat against the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds.

The last Cub to have an inside-the-park homer as his first M.L. homer was Carmen Mauro – on October 3, 1948, at St. Louis (off Murry Dickson).

ROARING 20'S

The Cubs have been involved in two of the highest scoring games in major league history, defeating Philadelphia 26-23 on August 25, 1922, at Cubs Park, and falling to the Phillies 23-22 on May 17, 1979, at Wrigley Field.

The Cubs have scored at least 20 runs in a game 15 times since 1900. The last time they reached that scoring plateau occurred May 5, 2001, at Wrigley Field — a 20-1 victory over Los Angeles. Their last 20-plus runs affair on the road took place August 18, 1995, at Colorado (26-7).

The last time the Cubs surrendered 20 runs in a game took place July 3, 1999, at Philadelphia (21-8 loss). The Cubs have allowed 20-plus runs 12 times since 1900.

SEEING DOUBLE

Since the advent of divisional play in 1969, the Cubs have only had one instance in which starting pitchers struck out 10 batters in 3 straight games. From May 11-May 13, 1969, Ken Holtzman (vs. San Francisco), Fergie Jenkins (vs. San Diego) and Dick Selma (vs. San Diego) all went the distance — and struck out 10 batters apiece — in consecutive Wrigley Field affairs.

PITCH OUTS

The Cubs set a team mark in 1999 by utilizing 25 different pitchers.

The club mark for most left-handed pitchers to see mound action in a season is 10—a figure reached in both 1999 and 2000. Prior to the 1999 campaign, the team record of 8 had stood since 1966.

The team mark for most strikeouts by a reliever is 11, set by Dave Hillman during a 7.2-inning relief stint May 28, 1959, against Los Angeles.

The last Cubs position player to take the mound for the Cubs was third baseman Gary Gaetti, who saw relief action July 3, 1999, at Philadelphia.

Since the advent of divisional play in 1969, the only Cub to record a save in his major league debut was Todd Wellemeier (May 15, 2003, at Milwaukee).

The last Cubs rookie to hurl back-to-back complete games was Dennis Lamp in 1978 (July 23 at San Diego, July 28 at San Francisco).

The Cubs haven't had a rookie with more than 1 complete game in a season since Frank Castillo tossed 4 in 1991.

The best career start record-wise for a Cubs pitcher is 8-0, recorded by King Cole in 1910. The worst start belongs to Jim Brewer, who began his Cubs career 0-8 in 1961.

On July 17, 1918, Lefty Tyler pitched a Cubs-record 21 innings in a route-going 2-1 win against Philadelphia. He gave up 13 hits and 1 walk while striking out 8.

Three years earlier, on June 17, 1915, reliever George "Zip" Zabel was called into a game against Brooklyn with two out in the top of the 1st inning at West Side Grounds. He had to pitch 18.1 innings before earning the win, as the Cubs won 4-3 in the 19th inning.

The Cubs' top single-season pitchers' batting marks for:

AVG: .350...Percy Jones (1927)
 H: 30.....Lon Warneke (1930)
 HR: 6.....Fergie Jenkins (1971)
 RBI: 20.....Fergie Jenkins (1971)

HAMMERIN' HURLERS

Since 1900, there have been two campaigns in which five Cubs pitchers homered in the same year — in 1937 and 1941. The "hammerin' hurlers":

1937: Roy Parmelee 2, Clay Bryant 1, Curt Davis 1, Bill Lee 1, Charlie Root 1.
1941: Claude Passeau 3, Bill Lee 2, Paul Erickson 1, Vern Olsen 1, Charlie Root 1.

Since 1900, the most home runs hit by Cub pitchers in a season is 9 — in 1961 (Don Cardwell 3, Bob Anderson 2, Jack Curtis 2, Glen Hobbie 2).

Fergie Jenkins (13) hit more homers than any other pitcher in Cubs history — just ahead of Claude Passeau (12) and Charlie Root (11). Six other hurlers went deep at least 6 times — including Kerry Wood (6).

The last Cub to have a no-hitter through 8.0 innings was Frank Castillo, who lost a no-hitter with 2 out in the 9th inning on September 25, 1995, vs. St. Louis at Wrigley Field (Bernard Gilkey triple).

Entering the 2005 season, the Cubs have played 5,085 contests since Milt Pappas' near-perfect game in 1972. Over that stretch, Cubs pitchers have thrown 15 one-hitters, with the last one taking place July 2, 2003, at Philadelphia — when Matt Clement, Mark Guthrie, Kyle Farnsworth and Joe Borowski combined to blank the Phillies 1-0.

Entering this campaign, the Cubs have played 6,207 games since they were no-hit by Los Angeles' Sandy Koufax in 1965 (a span of just over 39 years). The major league record for consecutive campaigns without being no-hit is 40, set by St. Louis from 1920-1959. Since Koufax's perfect game, the Cubs have had 18 one-hitters tossed against them, with the last one occurring April 26, 2002 — when Los Angeles' Odalis Perez accomplished the feat at Wrigley Field (broken up by a Corey Patterson 7th-inning single). TRIPLE PLAYS — LAST TIME IT HAPPENED

The Cubs have been involved in 76 triple plays since 1876, turning 40 and hitting into 36. The Cubs have hit into the last three triple plays they've been involved in (most recently May 14, 2000, at Montreal).

On May 10, 1997, in San Francisco, the Cubs turned their last triple play. The Giants' Stan Javier faced Amaury Telemaco in the 5th inning with Kirk Rueter on second base and Darryl Hamilton on first. Javier hit a fly ball to short centerfield, with second base umpire Bob Davidson invoking the infield fly rule. The ball dropped in, and both baserunners were thrown out attempting to advance [centerfielder Brian McRae to third baseman Jose Hernandez to second baseman Ryne Sandberg].

The last triple play turned at Wrigley Field was by San Francisco on May 8, 1998 (first baseman Charlie Hayes to shortstop Rich Aurilia). The last time the Cubs turned a triple play at The Friendly Confines occurred June 2, 1983, vs. Pittsburgh — when Pirates pitcher Rick Rhoden hit into an around-the-horn triple killing (third baseman Ron Cey to second baseman Ryne Sandberg to first baseman Bill Buckner).

On May 30, 1927, shortstop Jimmy Cooney turned the only unassisted triple play in Cubs history. In the fourth inning of the Cubs' game in Pittsburgh, Cooney caught Paul Waner's line drive, stepped on second base to retire Lloyd Waner, then tagged Clyde Barnhart off first.

HISTORICAL INFORMATION

Highlights In Cubs History

1876: The first game in the history of the Chicago National League franchise took place April 25, as Albert Spalding pitched the first N.L. shutout in the Chicago White Stockings' 4-0 win at Louisville ... Spalding also had the first hit in franchise history, while centerfielder Paul Hines scored the first run on a throwing error in the 2nd inning.

© the first home run in N.L. history was hit by the White Stockings' Ross Barnes on May 2 in a 15-9 victory in Cincinnati.

© the creation of the N.L. was credited largely to William A. Hulbert, who held the dual role of league president and Chicago president until 1882 ... with the assistance of manager Albert Spalding, Hulbert drafted the N.L. constitution and by-laws in 1875.

© of the eight original charter members of the National League, only the Cubs have operated continuously in the same city.

1906: The Chicago club went 116-36 in setting major league records for wins in a season and winning percentage (.763).

1907: "Cubs" was officially adopted as the nickname of the team ... the Cubs then went on to win their first World Series, defeating Detroit in 5 games.

1908: The Cubs were World Series champions for the second straight year, defeating Detroit 4 games to 1.

1916: The Cubs moved into Weeghman Park (now known as Wrigley Field).

1921: William Wrigley Jr. became the Cubs' majority owner.

© Wrigley's involvement with the team began in 1916, when a 10-man syndicate led by Charles Weeghman purchased the club from Charles Taft ... in 1919, Wrigley purchased Weeghman's shares to have controlling interest.

© after Wrigley's death in 1932, his interest passed to his son, Philip K. Wrigley ... upon Philip's death in 1977, principal interest in the ballclub was left to his son, William Wrigley.

© the sale of the club to Tribune Company in 1981 ended the longest continuous operation of a franchise by the same family in one city.

1930: Hack Wilson established a M.L. record by driving in 191 runs while hitting 56 home runs — a club/N.L. record that lasted until 1998.

© the largest crowd to see a baseball game at Wrigley Field (51,556) took place June 27 vs. Brooklyn ... of that number, 30,476 were Ladies' Day guests and 1,332 were passholders.

1988: The first Wrigley Field night game took place August 8 against Philadelphia ... the game was rained out after 31½ innings with the Cubs leading 3-1.

© the first official night contest took place August 9 vs. New York, with the Cubs winning 6-4 ... the first pitch was thrown by Mike Bielecki at 7:05 p.m. — a called strike to Lenny Dykstra.

1989: The Cubs won their second N.L. Eastern Division title when they defeated Montreal 3-2 at Olympic Stadium September 26 ... the Cubs compiled a 93-69 record under N.L. Manager of the Year Don Zimmer before falling in the NLCS to San Francisco 4 games to 1.

© for only the fifth time, teammates finished as the top two votegetters in the Jackie Robinson N.L. Rookie of the Year balloting ... Jerome Walton, who had a club-record 30-game hitting streak during the season, won the award, while Dwight Smith finished 2nd in the voting.

1990: Ryne Sandberg hit a league-high 40 home runs, the 3rd-highest single-season total for a second baseman behind the 42 hit by St. Louis' Rogers Hornsby in 1922 and Atlanta's Davey Johnson in 1973.

© Sandberg also set a M.L. record by playing errorless ball in 123 straight games at second base June 21, 1989-May 17, 1990.

1993: Sammy Sosa became the first player in Cubs history to record a 30-homer/30-steal campaign (33 homers, 36 steals).

1995: The Cubs won their 9,000th game May 21 at Los Angeles, defeating the Dodgers 2-1 in 13 innings ... the Cubs have won more games than any other one-city professional franchise.

© Sammy Sosa hit the 10,000th homer in Cubs history August 14 in Los Angeles (off Tom Candiotti).

1998: The Cubs went to postseason play as the N.L.'s Wild Card club after defeating San Francisco 5-3 in a 1-game tie-breaker ... the Cubs were swept by Atlanta during the Division Series.

© Sammy Sosa, who battled St. Louis' Mark McGwire for the major league homer record, earned N.L. Most Valuable Player honors ... Sosa finished the campaign with 66 homers — 4 behind McGwire — while leading the majors with 158 RBI and 134 runs scored.

© Kerry Wood was named the league's Rookie of the Year after going 13-6 in 26 starts with 233 strikeouts ... on May 6 vs. Houston, he tied the M.L. single-game mark by fanning 20 batters while allowing just 1 hit in a complete-game 2-0 win.

2001: Sammy Sosa became the first player in M.L. history to reach the 60-homers mark in three different campaigns ... he also became the first player to have a trio of 3-homer games in one season.

© Sosa had a club-record 425 total bases for his second career 400-plus campaign (416 in 1998).

© on May 24-May 25, Jon Lieber and Kerry Wood hurled back-to-back complete-game 1-hit shutouts.

2003: On September 27, the Cubs clinched their first-ever National League Central Division title when they swept a doubleheader vs. Pittsburgh by scores of 4-2 and 7-2 while Houston lost to Milwaukee 5-2 ... the Cubs won the division one season after going 67-95.

© the Cubs then came within a victory of heading to the World Series, as they defeated Atlanta 3 games to 2 in the Division Series before falling to Florida 4 games to 3 in the NLCS.

© Cubs pitchers fanned a major league-record 1,404 batters while allowing 1,304 hits — the highest differential in big league annals ... Kerry Wood (266) and Mark Prior (245) finished 1-2 in the major league strikeout race.

© on September 28, the Cubs retired the uniform number — No. 10 — of longtime third baseman/ broadcaster Ron Santo.

2004: On August 7 at San Francisco, Greg Maddux won his 300th career game, becoming the 22nd pitcher in major league history to do so.

© he was the second Cub to win his 300th game while donning a Cub uniform, joining Grover "Ol' Pete" Alexander in that distinction.

ERNIE BANKS — MR. CUB

For 19 seasons, Ernie Banks delighted Wrigley Field fans with his long home runs and cheerful disposition. He hit 512 home runs, surpassing the 40-roundtrippers mark five times. He hit 277 of his homers as a shortstop — a National League record. He also holds the N.L. single-season mark for homers by a shortstop (47 in 1958). The 14-time All-Star won the N.L. Most Valuable Player Award following both the 1958 and 1959 campaigns.

Banks, whose No. 14 flies from the leftfield foul pole at Wrigley Field, was elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1977. He was voted to Major League Baseball's all-century team in 1999.

Born on January 31, 1931, in Dallas, TX, Banks played for the Cubs from 1953-1971 and served as a coach from 1967-1973. He made his major league debut September 17, 1953.

HEY NOW, YOU'RE AN ALL-STAR

Ernie Banks was selected to the National League All-Star team 14 times, the highest total for a Cubs player. Ryne Sandberg ranks 2nd in club history with 10 All-Star appearances (9 starts).

The only Cub to earn Most Valuable Player honors was Bill Madlock, who had a game-winning 2-run bases-loaded 9th-inning single off the White Sox's Rich Gossage in the 1975 contest. Madlock shared MVP honors with the New York Mets' Jon Matlack.

Six Cubs batters have hit All-Star home runs, most recently Andre Dawson in the 1991 contest off Boston's Roger Clemens. The others: Augie Galan (1936 off Detroit's Schoolboy Rowe), Hank Sauer (1952 off Cleveland's Bob Lemon), Ernie Banks (1960 off Boston's Bill Monbouquette), George Altman (1961 off Boston's Mike Fornieles) and Billy Williams (1964 off Kansas City's John Wyatt).

Cubs pitchers have earned 5 All-Star wins — Bob Rush (1952), Larry Jackson (1963), Bruce Sutter (1978 and 1979) and Lee Smith (1987). Cubs relievers have picked up 4 saves (Lon Warneke in 1936, Don Elston in 1959, Sutter in 1980 and Randy Myers in 1995). Cubs pitchers have suffered 4 All-Star losses — Bill Lee (1939), Claude Passeau (1941 and 1946) and Johnny Schmitz (1948).

Passeau is the only Cubs pitcher to start in the All-Star Game, taking the loss in the 1946 Midsummer Classic at Boston's Fenway Park.

The youngest Cubs player selected to the N.L. All-Star team was Greg Maddux, who was 22 years old at the 1988 Midsummer Classic in Cincinnati. As he did not participate in that contest, the nod as the youngest Cub to play in the All-Star Game goes to 23-year-old Ron Santo in 1963. The youngest Cubs pitcher to appear in an All-Star Game was 23-year-old Carlos Zambrano (2004).

The oldest Cub to play in an All-Star Game was 38-year-old Ernie Banks, who made his 13th and final All-Star appearance in the 1969 Classic in Washington, DC.

Three Cubs managers have guided the N.L. All-Star team — Charlie Grimm (1936 and 1946), Gabby Hartnett (1939) and Dusty Baker (2003).

Three All-Star Games have been played at Wrigley Field — in 1947, in 1962 and in 1990. The American League won all 3 games by scores of 2-1, 9-4 and 2-0.

- © the affair was only the third "final and decisive" postseason contest in Cubs history ... the club had dropped Game 7 of the 1945 World Series to Detroit and Game 5 of the 1984 NLCS to San Diego.

- © in Game 3 (a 3-1 Cubs win), Prior went the distance — allowing 2 hits while fanning 7 ... he was the first Cubs pitcher to throw a complete game in the postseason since Claude Passeau accomplished the feat in Game 3 of the 1945 World Series ... in the process, he also became the second hurler to throw a 2-hitter in a Division Series affair, joining Nolan Ryan (October 6, 1981).

Five outs — that's all that stood between the Cubs' 3-0 lead in Game 6 and their first trip to the Fall Classic since 1945 ... before two of those outs could be recorded, though, Florida stunned the Cubs with an 8-run 8th-inning rally.

- © by the time the fateful 8th was over, the Marlins had sent 12 batters to the plate ... the 8 runs were the most in an NLCS inning since St. Louis plated 9 in the 2nd inning October 13, 1985, against Los Angeles.
- © there was another day for the Cubs, however ... in Game 7, they found themselves down 3-0 early before rallying to tie the score in the bottom of the 2nd — including a 2-run shot by Kerry Wood ... his roundtripper was just the fourth by a pitcher in NLCS history — and the first since the Cubs' Rick Sutcliffe went deep in Game 1 of the 1984 NLCS vs. San Diego ... the Cubs then went ahead 5-3 in the 3rd inning on Moises Alou's 2-run homer ... from that point, though, the Cubs were held to just 1 hit — a Troy O'Leary pinch homer in the 7th off Josh Beckett — as the Marlins pushed across 6 runs from the 5th through 7th innings.
- © in the process, the Marlins became the fourth team in League Championship Series history to overcome a 3-games-to-1 deficit in advancing to the World Series.

REVOLVING DOOR

A club-record 51 players were utilized by the Cubs during the 2000 campaign (27 position players, 24 pitchers). In 1999, the Cubs set a team mark by sending 25 different pitchers to the mound.

The record for most players starting at any position in one season is 15, as the club utilized that total of starting pitchers in seven different campaigns (most recently 1990).

Besides pitchers, the Cubs single-year marks for players used at a position: 8 catchers (1916, 1960), 9 first basemen (1976), 9 second basemen (1893), 9 shortstops (1916), 10 third basemen (1902, 1957), 12 leftfielders (five times, most recently 2000), 10 centerfielders (1904) and 16 rightfielders (1902).

WELCOME TO THE BROOMTOWN

The last time the Cubs swept four consecutive series of any length took place in 1970, when the club won 11 straight contests from April 14-April 27:

April 14-15-16 — 3-game sweep vs. Philadelphia

April 24-25-26 — 3-game sweep vs. Houston

April 17-18 — 2-game sweep vs. Montreal

April 27 — Won first game of a series in Pittsburgh

April 21-22 — 2-game sweep vs. St. Louis

In 1935, the Cubs had a club-record 21-game winning streak from September 4-September 27. That streak also marked the last time the Cubs swept four straight series of at least 3 games. The breakdown:

Sept. 4-5-6-7 — 4-game sweep vs. Philadelphia

Sept. 16-17-18-19 — 4-game sweep vs. New York Giants

Sept. 9 (DH)-10-11 — 4-game sweep vs. Boston Braves

Sept. 21-22 — 2-game sweep vs. Pittsburgh

Sept. 12-13-14-15 — 4-game sweep vs. Brooklyn

Sept. 25-26-27 — Won first 3 games of a series at St. Louis

YOU CAN COME HOME AGAIN

Of the more than 1,700 players who have appeared in at least one game for the Cubs, five have had 10-plus year interruptions in their time with the club:

13 years: Roger Bresnahan (1900 ... 1913-1915) and Johnny Moore (1928-1929, 1931-1932 ... 1945)

12 years: Larry Gura (1970-1973 ... 1985) and Dave Martinez (1986-1988 ... 2000)

10 years: Lonny Frey (1937 ... 1947)

The longest span between homers for the team belongs to Billy Jurgens, who went 9 years, 22 days between Cubs homers August 2, 1938, through August 24, 1947 (both homers were hit at the Polo Grounds). Jurgens was a Cub from 1931-1938 and in 1946-1947.

HOOTON HOLLERIN'

The only Cubs draft selection to make his professional debut with the major league club was Burt Hooton — the club's 1st-round pick (and second overall selection) in the secondary phase of the June 1971 draft. Hooton made his debut on June 17, 1971, vs. Steve Carlton and the St. Louis Cardinals (and did not figure in the decision in the Cubs' 7-6 win) before being sent to the minors.

PINCHED BY A PITCHER

On August 11, 2001, San Francisco's Livan Hernandez was the last pitcher to have a 4-hit game against the Cubs — going 4-for-4 with a solo homer and 3 RBI.

On August 8, 2000, Los Angeles pitcher Darren Dreifort hit a pair of homers in a 7-5 victory over the Cubs at Dodger Stadium. Dreifort was just the fourth pitcher to record a multi-homer game against the Cubs, joining Cincinnati's Frank Foreman (July 4, 1895), the Boston Braves' Jim Tobin — who hit 3 homers May 13, 1942 — and the New York Mets' Walt Terrell (August 6, 1983).

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

The Cubs have not had a road winning streak of longer than 5 games since the 1991 season, when the club won 6 straight away contests over parts of three road trips (May 22-May 23, May 31-June 2, June 14).

The club's best start to a road trip took place in 1918, when the Cubs began an 18-game excursion with an 8-game winning streak June 1-June 11 at Boston (4 wins), Philadelphia (3 wins) and New York (1 win). The Cubs went 12-6 for the trip.

The last time the Cubs had a perfect multiple-city road trip took place in 1945. On September 27 that year, the club swept a doubleheader against Cincinnati at Crosley Field by scores of 3-1 and 7-4. Then, on September 29-September 30, the club won 3 games at Pittsburgh's Forbes Field (4-3 and 5-0 in a twinbill, followed by a 5-3 triumph).

The last time the Cubs swept consecutive road series took place in 1998, as the club was victorious in back-to-back 2-game sets at Arizona's Bank One Ballpark (May 11-May 12) and Colorado's Coors Field (May 13-May 14). The last time the club swept consecutive road series of at least 3 games each occurred in 1971 (June 25-June 27 at St. Louis' Busch Stadium, July 6-July 8 at Los Angeles' Dodger Stadium).

GOING THE DISTANCE

The last time Cubs pitchers went the distance in three consecutive contests took place during the 1976 campaign — when Rick Reuschel (September 18), Ray Burris (September 19) and Steve Renko (September 21) did the honors.

The last time the Cubs had three straight complete-game shutouts took place in May 1969. Ken Holtzman started the streak May 11 with an 8-0 victory over San Francisco. Fergie Jenkins then blanked San Diego 2-0 on May 12. Dick Selma finished the stretch with a 3-hitter in a 19-0 victory over the Padres May 13.

KEEPING THE ROTATION TOGETHER

The Cubs utilized as few as seven starters in a campaign as recently as 2005, when the only pitchers to start for the club were Matt Clement, Greg Maddux, Sergio Mitre, Mark Prior, Glendon Rusch, Kerry Wood and Carlos Zambrano.

Since 1900, the club mark for fewest starters in a season is six — set in 1901. During the 19th century, the team utilized as few as two starters in four seasons, most recently during a 98-game 1883 campaign (Larry Corcoran 53 starts, Fred Goldsmith 45 starts).

MAJOR LEAGUE WAIVER RULES

There are four types of waiver requests – Major League Waivers, Special Waivers, Outright Waivers and Unconditional Release Waivers.

Major League Waivers are necessary for any player assignment between major league clubs made from August 1 until the day after the close of the regular season. Waivers are not needed for major league assignments during the rest of the year. The trading deadline in which waivers are not needed is July 31.

Special Waivers are irrevocable. They are required for a major league club to outright a player to a minor league club from September 1 until the 30th day of the following season.

Outright Waivers are irrevocable. They are required for a major league club to outright a player to a minor league club from the 31st day of the regular season until August 31.

Unconditional Release Waivers can be secured at any point during the year.

WRIGLEY FIELD INFORMATION

History of Wrigley Field

Wrigley Field, which was built in 1914, is playing host to major league baseball for the 92nd season in 2005 – and to the Cubs for the 90th year.

Wrigley Field is the second-oldest ballpark in the major leagues behind Boston's Fenway Park (1912).

© The Friendly Confines has been the location of such historic moments as:

- ◆ Babe Ruth's "called shot," when Ruth allegedly pointed to a bleacher location during Game 3 of the 1932 World Series ... Ruth then hit Charlie Root's next pitch for a homer.
- ◆ Gabby Hartnett's famous "Homer in the Gloamin'" September 28, 1938, off Pittsburgh's Mace Brown.
- ◆ the great May 2, 1917, pitching duel between Jim "Hippo" Vaughn and the Reds' Fred Toney ... both Vaughn and Toney threw no-hitters for 9.0 innings before Cincinnati's Jim Thorpe (of Olympic fame) drove in the only run in the 10th inning ... Toney finished with a no-hitter.
- ◆ Ernie Banks' 500th career home run May 12, 1970, vs. Atlanta's Pat Jarvis.
- ◆ Pete Rose's 4,191st career hit, which tied him with Ty Cobb for the most hits in baseball history ... Rose singled off Reggie Patterson September 8, 1985.
- ◆ Kerry Wood's 20-strikeout affair in 1998.
- ◆ Sammy Sosa's 60th home runs in 1998, 1999 and 2001.
- ◆ the 1947, 1962 and 1990 All-Star Games.

Originally known as Weeghman Park, Wrigley Field was built on the grounds once occupied by a seminary.

© Weeghman Park was the home of Chicago's entry in the Federal League and was the property of Charles H. Weeghman ... the club was known as both the Federals and the Whales.

© the cost of building Weeghman Park, which had a seating capacity of 14,000, was estimated at $250,000 ... the infield and outfield consisted of more than 4,000 yards of soil and four acres of bluegrass.

© the first major league game at the ballpark took place April 23, 1914, with the Federals defeating Kansas City 9-1 ... the first homer in ballpark history was hit by Federals catcher Art Wilson – a 2-run shot in the 2nd inning off Kansas City's Chief Johnson.

© when the Federal League folded for financial reasons after the 1915 campaign, Weeghman purchased the Cubs from the Taft family of Cincinnati and moved the club to the two-year-old ballpark at the corner of Clark and Addison streets.

© the first National League game at the ballpark was played April 20, 1916, when the Cubs beat the Cincinnati Reds 7-6 in 11 innings ... a bear cub was in attendance at the game.

© the park became known as Cubs Park in 1920 after the Wrigley family purchased the team from Weeghman ... it was named Wrigley Field in 1926 in honor of William Wrigley Jr., the club's owner.

The Wrigley Field bleachers and scoreboard were constructed in 1937 when the outfield area was renovated to provide improved and expanded seating ... the original scoreboard remains intact.

© the score-by-innings and the pitchers' numbers are changed by hand ... the numbers signaling batter, ball, strike and out, along with "H" and "E" to signify hit and error, are eyelets.

© no batted ball has ever hit the centerfield scoreboard ... two baseballs barely missed – a homer hit onto Sheffield Avenue (right-center) by Bill Nicholson in 1948, and one hit by Roberto Clemente onto Waveland Avenue (left-center) in 1959.

© one of the traditions of Wrigley Field is the flying of a flag bearing a "W" or an "L" atop the scoreboard after a game's completion ... a white flag with a blue "W" indicates a victory; a blue flag with a white "L" denotes a loss.

The original vines were purchased and planted by Bill Veeck in September 1937 ... Veeck strung bittersweet from the top of the wall to the bottom, then planted the ivy at the base of the wall.

© the bleacher wall is 11.5 feet high ... the basket attached to the wall was constructed in 1970.

Wrigley Field added lights in 1988.

© the first night game took place August 8 against Philadelphia, but was rained out after 3 1/2 innings.

© the first official night game occurred August 9 vs. New York, when the Cubs defeated the Mets 6-4.

© in 2005, Wrigley Field will be celebrating its 18th year of playing host to baseball under the lights.

- ◆ the Cubs entered the season having played 278 home night contests (going 147-131).

Wrigley Field has been the site of numerous construction projects since Tribune Company purchased the Cubs in 1981.

© new office space was created and old offices refurbished in the administrative area behind home plate in 1981-1982, while the ticket office was built directly behind home plate in 1983.

© during the winter of 1984, a new home clubhouse was completed under the third base stands ... the visitors' clubhouse was renovated in 1990.

© in 1989, private boxes were constructed on the mezzanine level, formerly occupied by the press box and broadcast booths ... a press box and broadcast booths were constructed in the upper deck directly behind home plate ... other improvements included a food court in the upper deck.

- ◆ following renovations in 1994 and 1995, there are now 63 private boxes.

RYNE SANDBERG

HALL OF FAME CLASS OF 2005

On January 4, 2005, Ryne Sandberg was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, NY. He will be inducted into the Hall on July 31.

Ryne Sandberg played for Philadelphia in 1981 and for the Cubs from 1982-1994 and 1996-1997. The former second baseman won nine Rawlings Gold Glove awards and was a 10-time National League All-Star selection, batting .285 in 2,164 big league games with 282 home runs and 1,061 RBI. He returned to the Cubs in 1999 as a spring training instructor and makes personal appearances on behalf of the club throughout the year.

Sandberg hit 277 of his homers as a second baseman and posted a .989 fielding percentage at that position — the highest career mark at that position in big league history.

He was named the N.L. Most Valuable Player in 1984 after batting .314 with 36 doubles, 19 triples and 19 homers — in just his third full season in the majors. He also was awarded the first of his seven Silver Slugger Awards and was named The Sporting News' major league player of the year.

His 277 homers rank first all-time among N.L. second basemen — and he was previously the major league recordholder, as Jeff Kent surpassed him in 2004 (278). Sandberg had six 80-plus RBI campaigns — and two 100 RBI seasons. He made eight consecutive All-Star starts (1986-1993), the most ever for a Cubs player, and was the N.L. leading votegetter three times (1990-1992).

Sandberg had 20 career errorless streaks of at least 30 games, including a big league-record 123-game stretch from June 21, 1989-May 17, 1990. In addition, he did not commit an error during his final 90 games of 1989 (432 total chances), the longest single-season stretch for a big league second baseman (surpassing Manny Trillo's 89-game stretch in 1982).

He played in seven different seasons without committing a throwing error — and did not commit a throwing miscue over his final 273 big league contests. He led N.L. second baseman in fielding percentage four times, led the majors in that category three times and led the majors in assists by a second baseman six times.

Sandberg began his Cub career as a third baseman, scoring a club rookie record 103 runs in 1982. He moved to second base the following season and won the first of his Rawlings Gold Glove awards — becoming the first player in National League history to be honored with the award in his first full season at a new position.

Sandberg finished his career with 1,316 runs scored as a Cub, the third-highest total in club annals — and ranks fifth in club history in homers.

He made his major league debut with Philadelphia on September 2, 1981, at Atlanta. He was acquired (with shortstop Larry Bowa) by the Cubs January 27, 1982, in exchange for Ivan DeJesus.

Ryne Dee Sandberg was born September 18, 1959, in Spokane, WA. Ryne and his wife, Margaret, have five children (B.R., Adriane, Lindsey, Justin and Steven) and reside in Phoenix, Arizona.
